Society WeekIn

terest and quite a novelty in the record of Richmond society. Never in its history have so many luncheons and suppers been given and "my lady" has had to "ring the changes on her tollet" every night. Day after day many groups have been seen tracks on the proches, and Franklin. Richmond society. Never in its history have so many luncheons and suppers been given and "my lady" has had to "ring the changes on her tollet," every night. Day after day many groups have been seen standing on the porches, and Franklin Street has been quite invaded with run-

Street has been quite invaded with run-abouts, tandems and traps.

New faces, now become familiar, have been recegnized in the box parties given each night, and they have been seen again with short skirts in the morning on Broad Street, stopping amidst the throng to look at the high dive into the water, watching the jugglers on the streets or sitting in the numerous ice-cream parlors with their friends which were not confined to their

To break the monotony (If there was any) were the meetings of the Woman's Club, the "Stay-at-Home" Whist Club, the lab, the Milton C. Work Whist Club, the lab dies' contest at the Hermitage Golf Club Mrs. Lear's tea and the wedding of Miss Marie Fleming.

Marie Fleming.
Several of the visitors who have been here during the past week will remain with their friends for some time yet, and many bright ideas are in their hostess heads for their entertainment, now that the Horse Show is a thing of the past.

Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Bear celebrated their silver wedding last Thursday by a delightful reception at their home, on North-Fifth Street, tion of which Mr. Lear is pastor assisted in receiving. Among them were; Mr. and Mrs. Winston, Dr. and Mrs. Tudor, Mr. J. P. Branch, Mr. and Mrs. John Freeman Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Grey Watson, Mayor and Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Allen Lyons, Dr. Merrick.

The dining-room was decorated in green and white, and the young ladies who waited were the Misses Pearl Nolley, Alice Clarke, Kate Lyons, Alice Lear, Edith Boothe, Carrie Pulliam and Lucy Armis-

The presents were numerous and hand-some. Amongst them was a chest of small silver given by the congregation of the Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church. The offical Board of Market-Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Petersburg, sent a dozen silver teaspoons. Mr. Lear was at one time paster of that congregation, Mr. J. P. Branch gave a handsome silver bowl. Some presents noticeable on the table came from Nashville, Tenn.

The inaugural ball of the Phoenix Club was given Thursday night at Sanger Hall and was a very delightful affair. There were about fifty couples present, and th arrangements were perfect. The grand march commenced at 9 o'clock, and was led by Mr. Abe Cohen and Miss Sadie Marks. Many fancy figures were performed, and the programme was thoroughly enjoyed. Amor; those present were:

Abe Cohen and Miss Sadie Marks; Jake Cohen and Miss Lena Kramer; Isidor Cohen and Miss Sadie Cohen; - Swartz and Miss C, Jacobson; Alb— Hentshell and Miss May Davis; Carl Kaufman and Mrs. C. Kaufman; Samuel Steiner; and Miss Stella Jacobs; Gus Jacobson and Miss Stella Jacobs; Gus Jacobson and Miss Cella Watsky; Ben Lovenstein and Miss Ella Harris; Jacob Lovenstein and Miss Dora Cohen; Hyman Levison and Miss Ella Cohen; Zeph Rolken and Miss Hannah Cohen; Sam Elmer and Miss Deina Elsner; Sam Davis and Miss Zelma Davis; Hen Weinstein and Miss Levison Davis; Ike Weinstein and Miss Hennie

Schwartz.

Refreshments were served and dancing kept up to a late hour, and the commitwho had charge were composed of David Paul, Aaron Lutts and A. L. Davis, Miss Claire Guillaume was chairman was fortunate in securing the service of Miss Eugenia L. Aunspaugh, of Lynch-burg, who addressed the club on 'The Artsitic Study of Literature." Miss Aunspaugh showed a thorough knowledge of her subject and was listened to with deep interest and close attention. Her manner is simple, natural and easy and her voice sweet yet distinct and clear.

Tea will be served at the club on Monday afternoon from 5 to 8 o'clock and on Tuesday at half-past four.

Miss Maude Pollard, formerly of this city, will be married in Bowling Green, on October 17th, to Mr. Robert Les Turman, of Atlanta. Miss Lalla Pollard.

MISS VIRGINIA MAUDE SUTHERLAND.

Regiment Virginia Infantry, Kemper's

Regiment, Virginia Infantry, Kemper's Brigade, Plokett's Division. He was a gallant and brave soldier, serving in nearly all the greatest battle of the war, including the immortal charge at Gettysburg. At the close of the war he was elected clerk of the court of Carroll county, and has served continuously ever since.

Maid of Honor from Fifth Congressional District to Confederate Reunion in Petersburg October 23d, 24th, and 25th.

Miss Virginia Maude Sutherland, who pular young lady. She is a daughter Captain W. H. Sutherland, of Hills-A. Carrie, county, who selved as the Company C. Twenty-fourth will act as male of honor to he sponsor from the Fifth District at the Confederate Reunion at Petersburg, October 25d, 2th and 25th, is a fair type of Virginia beauty and is an attractive and

The Horse Show has been of unusual in- a sister of the bride, will be maid of burg, October 23d, 24th and 25th. Miss Virginia Adair Minor has been appointed maid of honor to Miss Tyler. Among the fashionable weddings which are scheduled for this week is that or Miss Susie Tazewell Corling, of this city, to Mr. Robert McCluer Paxton, of Rock-bridge county. The marriage will take they will make their home in Richmond.

Carr left for Augusta Springs, Va.

Miss Lily Tyler has been appointed spor

MISS GERTRUDE SKELTON.

perform the marriage ceremony.

The bride will wear a traveling gown of blue cloth with hat to match, and will carry a bouquet of brides' roses. The ceremony will be followed by a luncheon at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Turman and his bride will go on a wedding tour, which will include a visit to Philadelphia, New York and Buffalo. They will return to Atlanta and be at home for a while with Mr. and Mrs. Willis, at 41 Currier Street.

The meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy will take many of Richmond's popular ladies to Alexandria this week mong these who will go are: Mrs. Stephen Beveridge, Mrs. John Hagan, Mrs. N. V. Randolph, Mrs. J. H. Timberlake, Mrs. Dabney J. Carr, Mrs. J. H. Capera, Miss Claire Guillaume was chairman Miss Mary G. Baughman, Mrs. Frank of the first regular meeting of the Woman's Club last Monday afternoon. She E. Bolling, Miss Mattie Harris, Miss Josephine Knox, Mrs. Maria Robinson, Mrs. John Teefey, Mrs. Charles G. Bosher, Mrs. Edgar D. Taylor, Miss Lydia Harris, Miss Bessle Hill and Mrs. Charles T. O'Ferrall.

The marriage of Miss Willie Huntington Wooton, the granddaughter of the late Calvin E. Parrish, and M. McGregor Anderson, the popular member of the firm of Mosby, Wilkinson & Anderson, in this city, took place Tuesday morning at 9:20 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church at Hillsboro, N. C., the home of the bride Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are now enjoying a bridal trip to Washington, New York, Buñalo and Niagara Falls. Returning, place at high roon Tuesday, October 15th, from the Second Presbyterian Church. Miss Corling is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson Cor-Mr. Paxton is a native of Sherwood,

Mr. Paxton is a native of the transfer of the You, where the young people will be at home to their friends after the 25th.

Miss Eggleston will also be one of the brides this week, and on Wednesday will be lead to the alter by Mr. William Cullen Bryant Haff, of the Hanover Bank, Brooklyn, N. Y. Brooklyn, N. Y. Miss Eggleston is the daughter of Dr.

and Mrs. J. W. Eggleston, of No. 509 East Grace Street.

East Grace Street.

"Mr. and Mrs. John D. Stubbs' residence will be the scene of a pretty marriage on October 16th at 9:30 P. M., when her daughter, Miss Annie Elizabeth, will beduch the control of the Chapter Bidd! come the bride of Mr. Charles Bidell Post.

On Wednesday Miss Clara McAllister, of Covington, Va., will become the bride of Mr. George W. Cobb, of this city. After a short honeymoon they will be at home to their friends, at No. 17 West

Grace Street.
Miss Maude Winston Butler will become the bride on the same day at her parents residence, No. 913 Floyd Avenue, of Mr. Charles Burton Ford. Mr. Ford is a native of Pennsylvania, but is now chief draughtsman of the W. R. Trigs Company. The bride-elect is one of Richmond's favorites. The wedding will take place at 2 o'clock.

Miss Marie Stuart Fleming and Mr. John Junius Tallman were married Tues-day afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 1214 Floyd Avenue. The bride entered leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. John W. Fleming, and was met at the alter by the groom and was met at the area of the green his best man, Mr. D. Tallman. Miss Florie Anthony was maid of honor and was attired in white organdy over tarteta and carried La France roses.

The bride was gowned in a handsome tailor-made gown of navy blue and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley: Professor Reinhardt played the wedding march and Rev. D. W. Walthall perform-

March and Rev. D. W. Watchan performed the ceremony.

Mcssrs. A. S. B. James, Herbert Mc-Mann, Summerfield Tallman and Sam W. Bigger were the ushers.

The house was beautifully decorated.

with palms and growing plants furnished by Hammond.

There was a pretty wedding at St.

Peter's Cathedral at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, when Miss Margaret Haley, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. John A. Haley, clerk of the Board of Health, became the bride of Mr. John B. Matt, a popular young mechanic of this city.

The Rev. Father Bowler officiated; Mr.

James B. Doherty acted as best man, end
Miss Hannah Matt, sister of the groom, was maid of honor.

The young couple left on a northern trip.

Miss Phyllis Langhorne was entertained at lunch Wednesday by her sister, Mrs. T. Moncure Perkins, of West Franklin Street.

The decorations were ferns and La France roses. The following were the guests: Miss Helen Christian; Miss Mary Ashley Bell, of New York; Mrs. C. D. Langhorne, of "Mirador," Albemarle county; Mr. Courtland Smith, of Alexandria; Mr. Hurkamp, of Fredericksburg, and Mr. John Bryan.

"Liberin," the huge Pacific mail line steamer, will be launched on Saturday, October 11th, at News at News.

Miss Belle Norwood Tyler, daughter of Governor J. Hoge Tyler, will christen the boat, and the christening is expected to be one of the leading social events of

An interesting afternoon was spent at he Woman's Club Monday, when Miss E. L. Aunspaugh lectured on the "Artistic Study of Literature." She brought out in her talk the relations and the blending of science, art and religion. The yardatick of science was the bower to think, think the thought. All forms of art

An impressive wedding ceremony was conducted at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, of Bristol, Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Saliie De Burk and Mr. E. L. Carr were united in marriage. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. derful amount of training, expression and Afterwards refreshments were served and friend greeted friend. Miss Crump

Miss Ellen M. Lockett became the bride of Mr. James W. Shaw last Wednesday night at 7 o'clock. The impressive wedding service was conducted by Rev. J. B. Hud-son, 1 stor of the Pine-Street Baptist Among the prominent visitors ... at were present were Miss Funnell, Norfolk; Miss Emma Porter, Brooklyn; Mrs. R. Lindsay Gordon, Louisa Court-house; Mrs. Alfred Randolph, Mrs. A. Warren 'Vestern, Miss Alice M. Parker, Washington; Mrs. For-dich, New York; Mrs. A. Emma Hughes, Lynchburg, Miss Woodfolk and Miss Pred. Church. Miss Lockett is the daughter of Mrs. H. A. Lockett.

The young couple will make their future home at No. 416 West Marshall Street.

Lynchburg; Miss Woolfolk and Miss Brad-poured coffee and Miss Winston served

Lynchburg; Alles bury, of Orange. sor-in-chief of the Virginia Division of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans upon Miss Jean Wellford Myers was married very quietly last Thursday. The bridegsoom was Mr. Frank G. Randall. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi E. the occasion of the meeting of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans at Peters. Calisch at the home of the bride's mother, No. 407 North Eighth Street at 4 o'clock. Owing to recent bereavement in the family no invitations were issued

> Miss Annie E. Grimswell was married Tuesday night at St. John's Evangelical Church at 7 o'clock to Mr. Charles E. Dietrick. The ushers were Mr. Henry Grinswell, brother of the bride; Mr. Eugene Nichtigh and the groom. Mr. gene Dietrick, brother of the groom; Mr. Arthur Mattern and Mr. Charles Kepler.

The bride wore a gray traveling dress The bride wore a gray traveling cress and carried a shower bouquet of liles of the valley. The church was beautifully decorated by Hammond. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. E. Grimswell, and the groom is a valued employe of R. L. Christian Company. After an extended trip north, they will be at home to their many friends at No. 27 North Beech Street. Dr. Huber, of Baltimore, perform ed the marriage ceremony. ed the marriage ceremony.

The "Stay-at-Home" Whist Club will meet to-morrow night at the residence of Mrs. C. P. Brock, No. 206 East Franklin

Miss Katherine Beverly Holladay, of Suffolk, became the bride of Dr. Robert Henley Pretlow Wednesday at 6:30 o'clock, The ceremony was performed at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alto H. Holladay and a granddaughter of the late Colonel John R. Copeland.

Dr. Pretlow is a Virginian by birth, but studied medicine in New York, where he now has his practice. He is also visiting physician of the Columbia Hospital.

Mr. Robert H. Talley gave a delightful dinner in honor of Miss Lizzie Heeman. Mr. Tailey's guests were Miss Mary Waddill, Mr. Arthur Cannon, Mr. William Sterns and Miss Lizzie Heeman.

Mrs. Allen Cock, of Norfolk, gracefully chaperoned the party.

A box party was given Miss Emily Kemps, of Washington, D. C., at the matmemps, of Washington, D. C., at the mac-ince Horse Show yesterday, chaperoned by Mrs. Chas. Grandy, of Norfolk. Among the guests were: Miss Walker, Miss Gordon, Dr. Grandy and Messrs. W. G. Ferguson, S. L. Carter, Messrs. Bryan and Randolph, Holladay,

Dr. Marmaduke Atkinson, of Newport News, entertained a party at the Horse Show Friday night in honor of M.ss Elizabeth Boyd, of Baltimore. After the per formance a delightful supper was served at Murphy's Hotel. His guests were Misses Anne and Elizabeth Boyd, of Bal-Ansess Anne and Engageth Boyn, of Bartimore: Margaret and Louise Wright, of Philadelphia, and Lucy and Ethel Atkinson. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Sidney J. Dudley, of Hampton.

The complimentary house meeting to the guests of the Deep Run Hunt Club, which had been set for Monday, has been declared off by the M. F. H. Mr. Harry Beattle, because of the inability to participate of so many of the visiting herse. ticipate of so many of the visiting horseand lady riders.

A fine cross-country course from the Horse-Show payllion to the club-house had been selected for the occasion, and a fine run after the hounds was antici-pated, but the warmth of the weather, the weariness of the men and animals and the necessity for carrying out prio shipping arrangements obliged the aband-omment of this attractive feature of the week's sport. It is agreed, however, that there shall be a hunt next year that will be worth living for.

Mrs. J. C. Parkinson has issued invi-Mrs. J. C. Parkinson has issued intrations to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Julia Temple Parkinson, to Mr. John Morris Howard, of Newport News, Va., to take place Tuesday, October 15th, at 6:30 o'clock, at her residence on East 6:30 o'clock, at her residence on East New Mrs. W. D. Harton, president; 6:30 o'clock, a. ... Marshall Street.

Members of the Woman's Club can ob-Members of the Woman's Club can obtain tickets for admission to the lecture of Madame Grand on the 28th by applying at the club-house on Monday or Tuesday and exchanging same for reserved seats at the Auditorium boxes on those two days only. After the 15th the box office will be open to the public.

Miss Florence Massie, daughter of Sen-ator Bland Massie, of Nelson county, came down from her school, in Charlottesville, to attend the Carnival Friday afternoon and was among the ladies on the floor of the convention to-day. Miss Laura Elinwood Estes, of Straightstom, Pittsylvania county, Va., who has been the guest of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Verser, on Church Hill, during Carnival week, returned to her home via the Southern Railway Friday night.

Miss Rosa Hable, of Winchester, is vis-iting Miss Lottie Weil, of West Clay Street.

Mrs. S. A. Mackie and daughter, of Church Hill, are staying in Washingotn, Mr. Edgar Murrie, of Danville, Va., is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Redd, No. 114 South Pine Street.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Clarke have engaged the flat on the corner of Fourth and Franklin Streets for this winter.

Mr. Smoot, of Alexandria, Va., reached Richmond Friday with a party of seven During a stay of several days here, he will be at No. 215 East Franklin Street.

Selections from Browning will be read by Miss Aunspaugh before the Woman's Club next Monday afternoon. Tea will be served from 5 to 8 P. M. and a lovely evening is in store for members.

The marriage of Miss Rosa Bliley to Mr. William Miller is announced to take place at St. Peter's Cathedral October 23d. Miss Lucy R. Patteson, of Lynchburg, and Miss Elizabeth B. Moore, of Bedford, are visiting Miss Katherine Foster, in West Grace Street. Mr. B. T. Hicks and two daughters, Misses Gracie and Dorothy, of Bullocks, N. C., returned home yesterday, after spending a week with relatives in the

Miss Carrington, of Clarksville, Va., who was the guest of Miss Nannie Grigg during the Carnival, has returned home.

Miss Louisa Waddell, of Clover, Hallduring the past week. fax county, has been visiting the city

Daughters of the Confederacy, who in-tend going to the convention of the Grand Division of Virginia, at Staunton, are re-quested to call at Mrs. N. V. Randolph's and obtain cards, which will entitle them to the special rates. The delegates will leave Tuesday morning.

appeal to the spirit; let us give it its voice. Character is the measure of art and influence and religion leave its mark.

Miss Mary Ashley Bell pleased the audience with her sweet singing, and was encored twice. Her voice shows a wonderful amount of training appressing and miss Miss pressing and miss measurements. It is a special to the guest of Miss Anna Simmons.

Miss Virginia Tillman, of the Old Dominion Hospital, who has been visiting Miss Mattle Jones, in Scottsville, has reminion Hospital, who has been visiting Miss Mattle Jones, in Scottsville, has returned to the city.

turned to the city.

Ernest Lee Bolling, of No. 1017 Floyd Avenue, has composed several selections for the plano, which will be published shortly, and which are pronounced by critics to be musical gems. They are: "The Princess Pocahontas," a shottlsche; "Moonlight on the James"; "The Belles of Richmond," a concert waltz, and a "Nocturne in E Major." Mr. Bolling will give a recital in the near future, when give a recital in the near future, when the public will have an opportunity of hearing his masterful playing. Mr. Boll-ing belongs to the old Bolling family of Virginia. who trace their ancestry back to the Princess Pocahontas. He is the only son of William Bolling, also a well known musician, and great-grandson of Colonel William Boling, of "Bolling Hall."

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Goodall are staying with Mrs. Grigg, No. 15 South Third 7 Street.

Miss Lena Fletcher, of Warrenton, is the guest of Miss Birdsong, of South Third Street.

Miss Lucile Nelson, of Culpeper, who visited Richmond during the Carnival, has returned to her home, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. W. G. Neal, and family,

The Guatira Indians are becoming more incensed against the Venezuelans on account of the outrages committed by the latter, and have shockingly mutiliated over a score of Venezuelands who have fallen into their hands.

These advices conclude with saying that fighting there seems improbable.

fighting there seems improbable.

Capital Stock Paid In-

School Children From Centralia The entire capital stock of $200,000 of the Broad-Street Bank has been paid, and the securities of this institution have been listed on the Richmond Stock Exchange. Mr. William M. Habliston is president, Mr. J. W. Rothert first vice-president, Mr. Tucker K. Sands second Mr. William M. Habliston is NEGRO MAY HAVE BEEN ROBBED. vice-president and Mr. Andrew M. Glover cashier of this bank.

Turged Over to Norfolk & Western.

(By Associated Press.) CINCINNATI, OHIO, Oct. 12.—The Gencircinvalt, Ohio, Oct. 12—The General offices of the Cincinnati, Portsmouth and Virginia Railway were to-day formally turned over to the Norfolk and Western Railway Company, which recently purchased the road. The Norfolk and Western will have a general agent here.

National Lecture W. C. T. U.

Miss M. L. Welles, of Tennessee, will deliver an address at Broad-Street Methodist Church Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, MISS BELLE NORWOOD TYLER. Who Will Christen the Pacific Mail Steamship Siberia at Newport News Oct. 19th.

who will remain with her for a few days. Mrs. S. C. Morton, of South Boston, is the guest of Mrs. James Grigg, of South Third Street,

Notwithstanding the Carnival, adies of the St. Ann's Benevolent Society met Wednesday afternoon to distribute their goods to the needy who applied. Next Wednesday the young ladies are asked to meet promptly at 3:30 o'clock to repair such garments as need it and make new ones. Mrs. Andrew Pizzini, Jr., has generously donated a handsome Mrs. James Rankin, second vice-president; Mrs. Carrie Ridgley, treasurer; Miss Mary S. Epps, secretary, and Father Thomas J. Waters, chaplain.

WILL OPEN TO-MORROW NIGHT. Night Educational Classes at the V. M. C. A. to Begin for the Winter.

Now that the Carnival is over, every young man and boy who is thinking of self-improvement and of a brighter fu-ture will be interested in the opportunities presented by the night educational class-presented by the night educational classes at the Young Men's Christian Association. The following classes for young man will begin to-morrow night: Elementary arithmetic, book-keeping, electricity, stenography, pattern making, and on Tuesday night, intermediate arithmetic, English grammar, mechanical draw-ing, penmanship and spelling; and on Tuesday night, business, penmanship and stenography; on Friday afternoon, mandolin and guitar. All that is necessary to be able to enter any of these classes is to become a member of the Association, limited fee, and pay in addition a small tuition fee for the fifty-two or seventy-eight lessons.

By this noble work, which is a philanthropy of the trust sow by this house work, which is a philanthropy of the truest sort, scores of young men will be assisted in better qualifying themselves for the future and in making their spare time more profitable, both to themselves and their employers. Elementary arithmetic will be in charge of Mr. D. B. Gaw, of Richmond Collega; intermediate arithmetic and English grammar in charge of Mr. J. D. Arm-strong, of Union Theological Seminary; book-keeping and stenography, as during the past five years, in charge of Mr. Geo. B. Wilson and Mr. El. H. Bell; electricity will be taught by Mr. E. M. Archibald, superintendent of the electrical depart-ment of the Richmond Locomotive Works; and penmanship by Prof. W. ner, of the Massey Business College. Mr. T. C. Diggs, of the B. F. Johnson Company, will have charge of the junior

VENEZUELANS ENTRENCHED.

They Are Ravaging as if Located in an Enemy's Country. (By Associated Press.)
WILLEMSTAD, ISLAND OF CURACAO,

Oct. 12.—Via Haytien Cable.—Advices re-ceived here to-day from Maracaibo, un-der date of October 10, say the Venezuelan troops are entrenched at various points on the peninsu.a. A majority of them are in the vivinity of Maraicalbo. The conditions at the front are indescribably confusing. The Venezuelan sol-diers are ravaging as if in an enemy's country. Being practically without com-All members of Richmond chapters, Daughters of the Confederacy, who intend going to the convention of the Grand Division of Virginia, at Staunton, are requested to call at Mrs. N. V. Randolph's and obtain cards, which will entitle them to the special rates. The delegates will leave Tuesday morning.

Niss Agnes McCarthy will leave Nos-

Country. Being practically without commissariat, they are compelied to live on the country, and take possession of everything in sight. The country side is rapidly becoming deserted, resulting in a lack of food supplies of any kind, and a consequent increase of hunger, distress and suffering among the soldiers, who have no shelter. Sickness is spreading rapidly among they have no medical attendance or medicines.

to which the public is cordialy invited. She will speak at Union-Station Church on Wednesday night. She will be the guest of Dr. John Hannon, at whose church she spoke in California. She is the descendant of one of the most distinguished families of Virginia, and is a graceful and forcible speaker.

Commandant Scheeper Captured.

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Oct. 12.—Lord Kitchener re-ports to the War Office from Pretoria under to-day's date that General French's not. The British have been in pursuit for a couple of weeks. Scheeper himself was so ill that he was obliged to travel in a buggy.

Misses Mattie and Lucy Henry Wood. Miss Margaret Cary, Auss Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell Wood, who have been attending the Carnival and Horse Show, left Friday for their homes, in Rappahannock.

Mr. J. D. Terry, of Appomattox, who won the Statte scholars, p at the Medi-cal College of Virginia, has arrived in the city to complete his medical education.

great Carnival. There were about fortyfive children in all crowded on the construction car, which is being operated over the line from Centralia to Manchester. They spent the day in the city, and returned by the same route in the evening. SAYS HE WAS HELD UP. A negro, giving his name as Fred Williams, residing on East Fourteenth Street, claims to have been held up and robbed last night on Mayo's Bridge. He pre-sented himself early in the evening at the office of Dr. Rucker for treatment, telling the story of the robbery and show-ing the wounds, which he claims were inflicted by the footpads. He had one stab in the back and a deep cut under his left ANOTHER CANDIDATE.

Still they come. Another independent candidate has announced his intention of running for the Log slature this fall. This time the gentleman with the legislative aspirations halls from the First Ward. and is one D. S. Maddia. He is a Republican, and whether he has the endorsement of the party is not stated. His notice was filed yesterday with the clerk of the Hustings Court. Mr. Maddia says he proposes to make things interesting for the Damageria namines. for the Democratic nominees.

curred on the Southside since the Richmond Carnival has been holding forth was occasioned yesterday morning, when the alarm of lost child was sounded by the ringing of the fire bell. There was a general turning out of merchants, clerks and city officials, and the search started.

found he was inspecting Mayo's Bridge. The back tap was sounded on the bell ster was unwillingly escorted home.

Rev. E. V. Baldy will preach this morning on the theme "Visions of Horses."

vices at Central Methodist Church. rested Friday morning by Special Offi

TWO BOERS HANGED.

Death Sentences of a Number of Others Have Been Commuted

(By Associated Press.)
MIDDELBURG, CAPE COLONY, Oct. 12.—Two young farmers, who had twice joined the Boers, have been hanged at Vryburg. The death sentences of a number of other condemned men have been commuted to penal servitude.

commuted to pends servicing.

Commandant Lotter, the Cape rebel, whose commando, consisting almost wholly of rebels, was captured south of Petersburg, in September, and who was sentenced to death, was executed yesterday morning. Commandant Lotter had been tried and found guilty on eight counts, including sedition, the murder of colored, unarmed scouts, the murder of troopers in action. the blowing up of railroads, and the cow-hiding of British subjects and Europeans. Lotter pleaded that he was a citizen of the Orange Free State, but this was disproved.

isthmian Canal Commission.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., October 12 .-Former Senator Pasco, now a member of the Isthmian Canal Commission, for short time to-day discussed with the President matters relating to the coming report of the commission. This report will not be submitted to the President will not be submitted to the President until some time next month, as it is desirable that the latest facts and information may be incorporated in it.

MISS ETHEL POUGH

Maid of Honor from Ninits Congressional Distretto Confederate Reunion in Peterson October 234, 54th and 2015.

Candidate for the Legislature from the First Ward - Church Services - News, Personal and Brief Items from Manchester.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times 1 No. 1102 Hull Street.

PASSENGERS ON .

PETERSBURG LINE

Brought to the Carnival.

The first passengers to be brought into the city over the line of the Richmond and Petersburg Electric Railway Company arrived yesterday from Centralia. Free of charge, the company brought the children of the public school in to see the CHILD LOST.

The greatest excitement which has occurred on the Southside since the Rich-

The little visitor, so having his presence in the city announced, was a Master Bronaugh, of Powhatan county

Rev. J. C. Reed will conduct both ser-Harry Rom, a young white man, was arcer Overton, on the charge of stealing iron from the Richmond Passenger and Power Company. He was taken before 'Squire Cheatham and bailed for his appearance next Friday.